FIELD TRIP

Trips to landmarks, museums, parks and historical buildings and notable organizations in New York City and beyond are fun and hands-on experiences through which New Americans can learn about American culture, history, arts, governance and citizenship.

American History Live
Join us for the tour of the Schomburg Center and historical Harlem
Wednesday, July 15, 2 – 5 pm

Address: 515 Malcolm X Boulevard
New York, NY, 10037

Travel directions by Subway: 2 or 3 trains to 135 St in Manhattan.
We will meet at 2pm in the lobby of the Schomburg Center.
You can also leave with us from ESU at 1pm.

The Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture located in Harlem, New York, is a research unit of The New York Public Library system. It is recognized as one of the leading institutions focusing exclusively on African-American, African Diaspora, and African experiences.

We will also see Curators' Choice: Black Life Matters. This exhibit presents rarely seen collection materials. The curator of each research division presents selections that engage audiences with the rich matter of black life and cultural production—from documentary films to children's books, from handwritten letters to historical audio recordings and LPs, from photographs to lithographs, and much more.

METROCARDS WILL BE PROVIDED

Please call or email Diandra Kalish or Tanzilya Oren to register for the tour in advance.
