Conversation Practice

Going Out for Dinner

You would like to go out to dinner with your sweetheart to celebrate Valentine's Day. However, your sweetheart is particular about what he/she eats, and it's hard to agree on where to go. Suggest restaurants and types of food until you can agree on a place to eat. Then, pretend you are looking at the menu and try to decide what to order. Will you share a dish? Will you order a special dessert?

Culture Corner

Valentine's Day is a time to let our loved ones know how we feel. We may send an anonymous love note—called a "valentine"—decorated with hearts and flowers. Often, cards are inscribed with the words "Be My Valentine" or "Be Mine." Some people give chocolates, candies or flowers to those they love.

The heart is the symbol of Valentine's Day. Another symbol is Cupid, drawing his bow. Whoever is struck by Cupid's arrow will fall hopelessly in love.

Is there a day to celebrate love in your native country? What are the symbols and traditions for that holiday?
