

INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC SPEAKING COMPETITION

The 2021 IPSC will bring the best speakers from all over the world together remotely for a week of competition, training & cultural exchange in London via Zoom. Each year, over 40,000 students from 50 countries have participated in the competition.

National IPSC Qualifying Rounds

*National IPSC contestants submit a 5 minute video speech on this year's theme:
The best route to change engages all voices*

Timeline

- Monday, March 29 Video Submission Due. Limited to first 50 entries
- Friday, April 9 US National Winner Notified
- May 10—14 International Public Speaking Competition in London via Zoom

Eligibility

- You must be 16—20 years old
- You must be a US National
- You must be available to compete virtually in London for the Finals Heat May 12 & Grand Finals May 14

The ESU US National Competition winner...

receives a $300 Prize, ESU Certificate & will represent the United States in the ESU International Public Speaking Competition May 10—14, 2021 in London via Zoom!

For registration and more information, go to www.esuus.org/esu/programs/ipsc/

