

It is our pleasure to introduce our November 15th guest speaker,

Dr. Alvin S. Felzenberg

American author, columnist, consultant, educator, historian, public official and spokesperson for 9/11 Commission.

Dr. Alvin S. Felzenberg served as assistant secretary of state in the administration of Governor Thomas Kean and senior staff member of Government Affairs for the Oversight Committee of the U.S. House of Representatives between 1982 to 1989.

Following the September 11 attacks, he was appointed spokesperson for the 9/11 Commission Report that operated from November 2002 to August 2004. He subsequently served as director of communications for the Joint Economic Committee of the United States Congress.

Felzenberg served as special assistant and advisor to the National Broadcasting Board of Governors, as consultant to the U.S. Secretary of the Navy, and as director of community outreach and public liaison for the Office of Secretary in the U.S. Department of Defense during the George W. Bush administration.

Felzenberg was a fellow at the Harvard Institute of Politics at Harvard Kennedy School at Harvard University in 2006. He has lectured at Princeton, Yale, George Washington, and Johns Hopkins universities. Since 2007, he has been a visiting lecturer at the Anneberg School for Communications at the University of Pennsylvania. He is a regular contributor to several periodicals, including the Philadelphia Inquirer, U.S. New & World Report, The Weekly Standard, and National Review. He has written several books. Visit www.alvinfelzenberg.com.

His educational background includes a B.A. and M.A. from Rutgers University and a Ph.D. in Politics from Princeton University. He divides his time between Washington, D.C., and Palm Beach Florida.

As a presidential historian, Dr. Felzenberg will present a never-before topic discussed for the Naples Branch, “Queen Elizabeth II and Her American Presidents.”

Please join us.

