

The English-Speaking Union of New York

Invites you to a pre-theater wine-and-cheese reception followed by a performance of
The Amateur Comedy Club production of Michael Frayn's

Tuesday, November 6, 2018

6:30 to 10:30 pm

The English-Speaking Union 144 East 39th Street, New York City

Called "the funniest farce ever written," Noises Off takes a fond look at the follies of theater folk, whose susceptibility to out-of-control egos, memory loss, and passionate affairs turn every performance into a high-risk adventure. This play-within-a-play captures a manic menagerie of itinerant actors as they perform Nothing On in three stages: dress rehearsal, opening performance, and a performance towards the end of a debilitating run. It offers a window on the inner workings of theater behind the scenes, progressing from flubbed lines and missed cues in the dress rehearsal to mounting friction between cast members in the final performance. Brimming with slapstick comedy, Noises Off is a delightful backstage farce, complete with slamming doors, falling trousers, and – of course – flying sardines!

We will gather for the reception between 6:00 and 6:30 pm and walk over as a group to the Amateur Comedy Club at 7:15 pm for an 8:00 pm curtain.
