

SAVE-THE-DATE Saturday, May 6,

The English-Speaking Union will host a Garden Party (4pm-7pm) at The Highlands Historical Mansion and Gardens on the afternoon of the Coronation of King Charles III to honor his accession to the throne.
The Coronation will have taken place earlier in the day at Westminster Abbey.

Photo credit: The Royal Collection Trust

After the death on 6 February 1952 of King George VI, Prince Charles's grandfather, his mother was proclaimed Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Charles became heir apparent with the title of Duke of Cornwall and six titles in the Scottish peerage. The Coronation ceremony took place on 2 June the following year. The 4-year-old Prince Charles received his own specially illustrated invitation.

Regular Ticket: $125

Benefactor Ticket: $200

Sponsorship packages are available. Please contact philaESU@gmail.com for details.

*The English-Speaking Union of the United States (ESU) is a non-profit, educational, tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization, and is incorporated in the State of Delaware.
The financial information of The English-Speaking Union may be obtained by calling 212-818-1200.*

THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING UNION OF THE UNITED STATES
PHILADELPHIA BRANCH

The Tiger Building, 1221 Locust Street, Box 502, Philadelphia, PA 19107
Tel: 215-545-3619 email: philaesu@gmail.com website: www.esuus.org/philadelphia